She stood there bright as the sun on that California coast He was a Midwestern boy on his own
E A/E D/E E
She looked at him with those soft eyes, so innocent and blue He knew right then he was too far from home
E A/E D/E E
Oh, he was too far from home

E A/E D/E E
She took his hand and she led him along that golden beach They watched the waves tumble over the sand
E A/E D/E E
They drove for miles and miles up those twisting, turning roads Higher and higher and higher they climbed

E A/E D/E
And those Hollywood nights In those Hollywood hills She was looking so right
E A/E
In her diamonds and frills Oh those big city nights In those high rolling hills
D/E E
Above all the lights n She had all of her skills

PIANO: D A E E
Oh, oh Yeah!

E A/E D/E E
He'd headed west 'cause he felt that a change would do him good See some old friends, good for the soul
E A/E D/E E
She had been born with a face that would let her get her way He saw that face and he lost all control
E A/E D/E E
Yeah, he had lost all control
E A/E D/E E
Night after night, day after day, it went on and on Then came that morning he woke up alone
E A/E D/E E
He spent all night staring down at the lights of LA Wondering if he could ever go home
