D..... Em7 D Em7 D
 Just when I thought I got her to fall in love with Tennessee I should've known better than to take her back to Abilene
G A A.....
 I put her right back into his arms I wasn't a match for that kind of spark He's from Texas, I can

G D Em7 A
 tell by the way He's twosteping 'round the room And judging by the smile that's written on her face There's nothing I can do
A Gmaj7 Bm7 G A.... D
 It doesn't take a crystal ball to see A cowgirl always finds a way to leave Drinking Jack all by myself She's choosin' Texas, I can tell

Em7 D Dadd9 D Em7 D Em7
 <Gtr. Intro Lick> Well, I guess she forgot about the Smoky Mountain rain Them old Hank tunes, the Memphis blues we used to D G A
 sing She always loved "Amarillo by Morning" I should've taken that as a warning He's from Texas, I can

G D Em7 A
 tell by the way He's twosteping 'round the room And judging by the smile that's written on her face There's nothing I can do
